

Fancy a few hours paid work that is flexible?

Going-There, a relocation company based in London with a fast growing network of operations in over 100 cities around the world, is looking for consultants for its Amman operation. We offer a service that you might wish you had, when you came here!

We need to recruit expats who are personable, savvy, with good people and communication skills. You must have excellent English, both written and oral and have home Internet access for the following post:

Destination Consultants:

You will help newly arriving expats settle in to their new lives in Amman. You will assist with topics such as pre-arrival assistance, home-finding, school searches, helping them get wired in to the city with the least possible disruption. Making an often anxious assignee and their family feel at home. Putting a friendly face on a foreign place.

Being an expat yourself, you will need a good knowledge of the city and some knowledge of the local rental market. This is a very part-time post, project based on an assignee package which could last from 1-5 days.

Please see our recruitment page at www.going-there.com to learn more about our company and email a.giles@going-there.com for further information about the posts available.
